The Truth About MLM

Network Award

Given to every person who passes on to Pyramid Scheme Alert (PSA) the names of five persons who are interested or would benefit from the information and services of PSA.

You will be sent a valuable certificate that:

- You can place on your wall.
- You can use as a topic of dinner conversation when distinguished guests arrive.
- You can add it to your list of "honors and awards" on your resume.
- If you are single, you can network with other award recipients and thereby know that you are meeting compatible persons as possible permanent partners. (We must be politically correct by not saying "marriage partners.")
- You can include it in your campaign literature when you run for political office.
- You can honestly say when you get to the pearly gates that you supported PSA.

The True Networker Award

Given to every person who recruits five persons into PSA and trains each of them to recruit five more into PSA. When certification is received that the 30 persons (5 + 5x5), are active in PSA from your recruiting efforts

- You will be granted an audience with the president of PSA, Robert L. Fitzpatrick, either in person or by tele-video conference call.
- You will receive a virtual kiss by PSA distinguished web designer, Susanna Perkins. (Of course, in the interests of political correctness, you could choose to receive your virtual kiss from Bob or Jon. . .)

- You will have a poem created for you by chief BS'r, Jon M. Taylor, Ph.D. (That stands for "piled higher and deeper.")

The "Comrade In Arms" Network Award

Given to every person who writes a book or who starts a web site exposing the evils of pyramid schemes, who sponsors effective state legislation against product-based pyramid schemes (PPS), or who places the initiator of a new MLM in a meat locker until his/her pyramid collapses. As a token of PSA's appreciation:

- You will receive a signed copy of the books of each of the authors who make up the Board of Directors of PSA.
- You will be given a "Comrade in Arms" certificate to frame and hang on your wall for all to see and talk about.
- You can add this distinction to your list of "honors and awards" on your resume.
- You will also be invited to run for president of our great nation on the PSA Party ticket. (We are confident you would be an improvement over the other candidates who are running.)
